

Expected deliverables of Lam Tai Fai College:

Expected tangible deliverables:

(1) School-based Product:

- Publication of teaching plans and curriculum guide of Education for Health Life-wide Extended Curriculum (as a blueprint for the planning of NSS OLE) and the senior secondary, Health Management & Social Care (HMSC)
- Publication of evaluation reports to inform on curriculum development and student all-round development services (whole-person development)
- Publication of resource materials for Education for Health Life-wide Extended Curriculum and HMSC (to give highlights for the innovative Life-wide & Integrative Education for Health curriculum in schools)
- A learning carnival

(2) Student-based Product:

- Students' portfolio/profile on personal growth and health.

Expected Intangible Deliverables

(1) School-based Product:

- Effective curriculum studies with the promotion of health culture among members of the school community.
- Development of team spirit among the participants.
- A closer linkage with the parents, Healthy schools in the territory and partner schools in Mainland China as well as overseas through experience-sharing sessions, courses, seminars, workshops, mentoring programme, camps and visits.

(2) Student-based Product:

- The mastery of skills on self-learning, presentation and report writing.
- Health checking skills and health awareness.
- An understanding of the environmental, health & social problems
- An understanding of the self-identity and personal development.
- The acquisition of managerial skills, team spirit and social skills.
- The development of positive personality and character traits like patience, confidence self-esteem, love for one's country and nationhood.

Dissemination of deliverables/ outcomes

- Pilot study or project in the Health Education Resource Centre
- Practice and hands-on training in the Health education Resource Centre

- Experience sharing sessions
- Collaborative lesson preparation and planning with schools
- Sharing of teaching plan and curriculum guide
- Sharing of teaching resource materials

Commercialization potential of deliverables/ outcome

- Free experience sharing sessions, sharing of resource materials, collaborative lesson planning would be provided.
- Video-conferencing with students and academics in the territory and overseas.